Question (Member Question No. 170):

What are the works progress, expenditure and manpower involved, and date of completion for the improvement to Sham Tseng Interchange?

Asked by: Hon. KWOK Ka-ki

Reply:

Construction works for the "Improvement to Sham Tseng Interchange" project commenced in August 2009 and were substantially completed in February 2014. The approved project estimate for the project is $99.6 million. The design and supervision of the works is carried out by consultants engaged by the Highways Department (HyD). The HyD has been deploying existing staff to oversee the implementation of the project.
