

Bauhinia flower
Image: AFCD

Tuen Mun Park
Image: LCSD

Blissful Bauhinia Tuen Mun

Bauhinia blakeana is a native evergreen flowering tree first discovered in Hong Kong in 1880. Its beautiful purple flowers and heart shape leaves are well known.

The theme for this footbridge painting works is "Blissful Bauhinia". The beautiful purple flowers and green leaves of Bauhinia blakeana, the emblem of Hong Kong, create a naturally relaxing atmosphere distinctive of the district.

